BRYAN ON EXPANSION.

Bryan Quotes From Both the Dead and the Living.

JUSTICE NOT STRENGTH SHOULD REIGN

William J. Bryan, in a signed statement in the Journal says, after quoting Jefferson in opposition to imperialism.

"If it is said that we have outgrown the ideas of the fathers, it may be observed that the doctrine laid down

Jefferson was reiterated only a few years ago by no less a Republican than James G. Blaine. All remember the enthusiasm with which he entered into the work of bringing the republics of North and South America into close and cordial relations. Some, however, may have forgotten these resolutions introduced by him at the conference held in 1890 and approved by the Commissioners present. They are as follows:

BLAINE'S RESOLUTION.

"1. That the principle of conquest shall not during the continuance of the treaty of arbitration be recognized as admissible under American law.

"2. That all cessions of territory made during the continuance of the treaty of arbitration shall be void if made under threats of war in the presence of an armed force.

"3. Any nation from which such cessions shall be exacted may demand that the validity of the cessions shall be submitted to arbitration.

"4. Any renunciation of the right of arbitration made under the conditions named in the second section shall be null and void."

Mr. Bryan quotes President McKinley's message of 1897, in which he said:

"I speak not of forcing annexation for that cannot be thought of. That, by our code of morality, would be criminal aggression."

He continues:

ONE YEAR ONE DOLLAR.

Who said anything about good roads?

At this stage of the fight, it seems to be the field against Goebel for governor.

There are no Spaniards in Cuba now, and it might be added that there are no Cubans in Spain.

The Cubans can have their jubilee when the Americans evacuate their country—but when will that be?

The war investigation committee didn't even stop for Christmas. Perhaps it will wind up in time for a vote by next Christmas.

With one or two exceptions the sheriff of every county in the State has settled with the auditor. The total amount of taxes paid in is $2,903,028.28.

The people of Mayfield have loaded their guns for blind tigers. A good movement, and if we had any in Marion, a similar fight might be apropo.

The seed the czar was sowing a few months ago, hoping for a harvest in the form of a peace conference and disarmament fell upon stony ground in this country.

Waterson is suggesting mongrel tickets for both parties in 1900. He is for any old ticket or platform that will make the atmosphere murky to give him a chance to crawl out of the hole he stumbled into in '96.

The latest news is that Dreyfus is still on Devil's Island. Enough has been said about the affair to convince the average man that while Dreyfus is occupying Devil's Island, the devil has been turned loose in Dreyfus' country.

The Record For 1898.

In the year 1898 County Clerk Woods recorded 351 deeds, 384 mortgages and issued 142 marriage license. Of the mortgages that went to record 248 was to secure sums in excess of $50.00.

The City Council

The members of the new city council, except W. D. Wallingford and Benj. Tucker, who were sick, were sworn in Monday. As soon as the other two qualify, the council will meet and organize and select the other officers. In the meantime the various excellent gentlemen who aspire to wear the brass buttons and carry the "billy" for Marion are hustling around among their friends and having their fences put in prime condition.

Old Maids' Convention Jan. 7.

A number of young ladies of Marion will present to the public the Old Maids' Convention Saturday night. The play has been presented by the young ladies of various towns, and has always met with the heartiest commendation from the public. It is supposed to be a convention of old maids assembled for the purpose of successfully angling for the lords of creation. It is a fine piece of humor throughout, and the evenings entertainment is closed with a beautiful fan drill. The net proceeds will be donated to the work of improving the new cemetery. The young ladies deserve, and we hope, will have a crowded house.

Holiday Weddings.

Jan. 3.—Edward L. Kemp, age 36.

Jan. 3.—Willie D. Humphreys, age 36, and Miss Mary L. Hosick, age 22.

Wedding at Court House.

Yesterday afternoon the monotony of the work at the court house was broken by a wedding. Mr. Green A. Franklin and Miss Florence E. Brasher were united in marriage in the county clerk's office by Rev. Belt.

STARS AND STRIPES

Grace Every Dome in the Gem of the Antilles.

LAST OF THE SPANIARD IN THE WEST

HAVANA, January 2.—After 400 years Spain has surrendered control of Cuba, and the red and yellow flag is at last removed from all the West. The Stars and Stripes now wave over Havana, from the palace, from stern Morro Castle, from grim Cabanas fortress and from all other public buildings. The ceremonies incident to the transfer of the island from Spanish to American control were carried out according to programme and without a hitch. Tearfully Capt. Gen. Castellanos bade adieu to his comrades; fervently he grasped the hands of his former enemy, the Cuban, and cordially shook the hand of his victor, the American. Thus did Spain pass from the New World; thus did the United States mark the end of another victorious war.

Nine Cuban Generals went with the Americans to do honor at the palace, to show their appreciation of the kindly officers of the United States in lifting from their fertile land the hand of oppression, and to give assurance of their belief that the military control of Cuba by the United States pointed the surest and quickest way to the government of the Gem of the Antilles by her own people.

On the stroke of noon Sunday, to the strains of the Spanish Royal March by an American band, down came the flag of Spain. Directly afterwards, at 12:04 o'clock, up went the Stars and Stripes to the music of the "Star Spangled Banner," and on the birth of a new year came to Cuba its first breath of freedom.

Directly after the ceremonies Capt. Gen. Castellanos left the palace, and, escorted by Americans, embarked for Mantanzas, leaving Maj. Gen. Brooke Governor of all Cuba.

At a reception in the palace salon after the official ceremonies, many Cubans and Spaniards who intended to remain in Cuba paid their respects to Gen. Brooke and promised allegiance to the United States.

The Cuban Generals present assured the United States Military Governor that they would do everything in their power to help restore the island to a condition of peace and prosperity.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God in his infinite wisdom, to call our beloved brother, J. H. Yandell, from his labors on earth, where he had wrought so diligently and faithfully for so many years in the terrestrial lodge below, to the celestial lodge above, where under the scrutinizing eye of our Grand Master above; all of his works are tried by the square, plumb and level, and we believe and have the evidence of the life he lived during his allotted time with us, that he was found by the Master Builder to be a perfect ashlar, a fit stone for that "temple whose maker and builder is God," and while we, his brethren of the mystic tie, deplore his loss in our lodge on earth, we bow in him his submission to this sad dispensation, believing that our loss is his eternal gain, and our faith in God, according to the teachings of our noble institution bid us look up and beyond the grave, confidently hoping ere long to meet him in that temple above where we will be reunited together with that endless chain of brotherly love, truth and friendship.

Now to his bereaved family in this their sad hour of bereavement, we extend to them our deepest sympathy and point them to the God in whom he had put his trust and recommend them to His tender mercies, who is ever ready to cheer the widow and the orphan, who look to Him and trust Him as their savior.

Bro. Yandell departed this life on Sunday Dec. 25, 1898, in his 52nd year. He had been a mason for 27 years and had been a member of the Presbyterian church since 1875. Now in the death of Bro. Yandell, we are resolved.

His wife has lost a true and faithful husband, the children a tender and devoted father, his church a faithful, consistent and useful member, and his lodge a true and faithful craftsman, whose labor of love and usefulness we shall sadly miss.

That our lodge be draped in mourning and the brethren wear the usual badge for 30 days, and a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minute books of the lodge, bearing the signature of our deceased brother and a copy furnished the Crittenden Press, with request to publish same.

Done by order of Hurricane Lodge No. 571, F. & A. M., Dec. 27, 1898.

TOLU.

Eighteen hundred and ninety nine John Tolbert moved to Tolu last week.

T. S. Croft is on the sick list but is improving.

Ed. B. Weldon and family, spent Christmas in Tolu.

The river is in fine boating stage, but is failing.

George Williams and family are attending the Niles-Johnson meeting.

Mr. Foster Threlkeld returned from her old southern home last Saturday.

A. L. Weldon has been sick since our last writing, but is able to be out at present.

A great many country people are attending the Niles-Johnson meeting at this place.

Jordan McCool bought and shipped a lot of hogs and cattle from this place last week.

Millard Denton the little cripple singer came down with Brother Niles and is assisting in the meeting.

The latest arrival is a ten pound boy at R. L. Easley's. Bob is able to be up and seems to be doing well.

A happy New Year to all readers of the Crittenden Press and a successful year to its editor is the wishes of your correspondent.

Matilda Canterbury, colored, received a government check last week for over seven hundred dollars, and a certificate for eight dollars per month hereafter.

A protracted meeting is in progress at the Methodist church at this place, conducted by the pastor Rev. Johnson, and Rev. Niles, who preach holiness without any reservation.

Come everybody and the Gospel preached in its purity, without fear or favor of any but God.

The new term of our school opened Monday.

The prospects are fair for better work than last term. There was promotion in nearly all grades.

The following were promoted from fourth to fifth grade, thus changing teachers and going up stairs: May Dranbaugh, Shelia Funkhouser, Sallie Weldon, Katie Barnett, Nacma Minner, Wathen Stone, Delta Tolbert, Beesle Shepherd, Pease Bozeman, Jessie Highfill and Sink Snepherd.

The Christmas tree at the Presbyterian church was well attended; the opening service and talk to the children by Brother Johnson was very appropriate and to the point, and should long be remembered by them.

The most skeptical could find no fault to the management, but we are sorry to have to say that the part played by King school in soiling some of the ladies nice dresses can not be too strongly condemned by all the people.

Some of our old men, young men, boys and youths imbibed freely in liquor during the holidays. What does it profit us to work and spend money for local option.

Whilst all ages can step just across the river and get whiskey by the drink, pint, quart, gallon or barrel, and what are we to do to save the boys? There is a sure remedy which your correspondent is always ready to prescribe free of charge. Come everybody and get the prescription free, if you consider your boys worth looking after.

NEW SALEM.

Rev. E. M. Eaton and little daughter are on the sick list.

Dave Woolford and family spent the holidays with relatives in Sherman.

Dave Woolford and John Harpending bagged 60 birds in two days last week all on the wing.

The tobacco crop of this section is about all sold at good figures; the present prospect is good for a big crop.

Will Davenport and wife, of Tolu, spent Christmas with Mrs. Davenport's parents—Mr. Robert Threlkeld and wife.

The old man Oliver, of whom we mentioned in our last writing, as being very sick, died; his two sons are reported to be some better.

Married Dec. 25, Mr. Jas. Campbell and Miss Ida E. Humphreys, Rev. Eaton officiating. The marriage took place at Cookseyville church.

Mrs. Annie Hill's school at New Salem, closed Dec. 24. Miss Hill taught a good school, although the surrounding were very discouraging, as the district has but few children under the school law.

W. O. Tyner returned home last week from a three weeks visit to his son, Felix, who lives at Mosher, Ark. Bill had the good luck to kill two deer while on his visit; at least Bill says he killed them, and no one that knows Bill doubts it.

W. B. Binkley has a boy on the sick list.

Parties are plentiful in this neighborhood.

Jim Jones, of Crayeville, paid this place a visit last Sunday.

Most all of the tobacco in this neighborhood is sold and delivered.

Ed Davenport spent Christmas at home, returning to Louisville Monday.

A. H. Cardin is rushing his tobacco stems, to make ready to refill his house.

"Charlie Morgan easily takes the blue ribbon on lug tobacco among our many purchases this year," said Mr. J. C. Elder, manager for Woods & Blue, as he held up to the light a hand of large, evenly colored, smooth tobacco, in the firm's big stemmery a few days ago.

Rev. G. M. Burnett, the popular circuit rider on the Marion circuit of the M. E. Church, tells us that his people have about provided sufficient money for the purchase of the smaller Cumberland Presbyterian church building at this place, and he hopes to consummate the purchase in a short time. The purchase includes the seats and the organ now in the building.

Last week Sid Cruse and Bill Kim bell, two of the colored hands in Jarvis' stemmery had a little mis understand, and Cruse inserted the point of his knife into Kimbell's back, deftly opening a vein and letting a good deal of blood out. After a thorough investigation, Judge Rochester charged Sid $500.00 for thus practicing surgery without license, and to the surprise of the court, Sid made a prompt cash settlement.

Mr. H. M. Cook has leased the Freeman hotel for three years with the option of keeping it five. He took charge Monday. He and his good wife are among the most popular hotel people in the country, and when in the business before their house met all the demands of an exacting public in a most satisfactory manner, indeed there were few, if any more popular hostelleries in Southern Kentucky.

VANDALISM.

Office Building of the Spar Company, Destroyed By Incendaries

On Saturday night December 24, unknown persons visited the spar mines, near Crittenden Springs and wantonly destroyed and burned property belonging to the Kentucky Fluor Spar Co. The office building with its contents was burned and the clothing, valuable watch and other personal effects of Mr. Watkins, the foreman, were in the fire; his loss was between $200 and $300, besides the company's loss. The engine and pumps were broken, at most all points that could be easily injured.

The damage was so considerable that a temporary shut-down was necessary.

It was a wanton piece of destruction and the guilty persons, if discovered, should be punished to the full extent of the law, which would be a term in the penitentiary for incendiarism. What prompted the act is a mystery, and the affair is in no wise chargeable to the employees of the company. In the first place, none of the men working at the mines are capable of such acts, and the business relations of the company have been pleasant and honorable with everybody in every particular.

It is to be hoped that no pains will be spared in ferreting out the guilty persons.

TOWN NOT WANTED.

Citizens of Shady Grove Prefer No Incorporation

A few days ago County Judge Rochester received the following paper: "Whereas no election was held for the election of officers of the town of Shady Grove, Ky., at the last November election. Now we the undersigned citizens of said town, representing a majority of same would respectfully ask the Judge of the Crittenden County Court not to appoint officers for said town, same not being necessary, there being no occasion for the incorporation of said town.

J. D. Elder, J. L. Gardner, T. E. Cannon, D. D. Woodson, J. W. Barrell, W. F. Trout, W. T. Bunchfield, G. W. Mitchell, J. W. Cloyd, R. F. Lemon, D. M. Hubbard, G. W. Cannon, T. E. Lizenbee, W. F. McConnell, Z. F. Davis, C. H. Barnhill. It seems that an order was made some years ago by Judge Moore, declaring the incorporation of the town of Shady Grove null and void. Last year a number of citizens asked Judge Rochester to appoint trustees. Not knowing of the order made by his predecessor, the trustees were appointed, but no election was held last fall, and a portion of the citizens again asked the county court to appoint trustees, and the above petition shows that the voters of the town are divided upon the subject. Judge Rochester issued the order of Judge Moore, and holds that the town is not incorporated, and declines to appoint trustees.

DEATH'S HARVEST.

The Old and the Young Cut Down by the Grim Reaper

Mr. Samuel G. Clark, a well known citizen of Livingston county, died at his home in the Salem Valley, Monday Jan. 2, after several months illness of consumption. Mr. Clark was one of the best known citizens of this section. He was born in Tennessee in 1847, and came with his father, Geo. M. Clark, to Crittenden county in 1852, settling at Dycusburg, where the elder Clark worked as a blacksmith and wagon-maker until 1869, when he moved to Pinekeyville, S. G. Clarked his father's trade and remained with him until his twenty-fourth year, when he bought a farm, the one upon which he died, and began agricultural pursuits. He was a success as a farmer, a man of fine sense, and wonderful energy, he soon accumulated a fair portion of this world's goods. In 1878 he was elected magistrate in the Salem district and served in that capacity with marked ability. He was an official member of the Baptist church at Pinekeyville, and took a leading part in all church work.

He was married to Ellen Darroh, a daughter of C. C. Darroh, Dec. 29, 1875. Six children were born of the union, three of whom with the good wife survive him.

The death of Mr. Henry Hunt, which occurred Dec. 22, removed one of the most promising young men of the county, and his death is lamented by everybody who knew him. His brother died in October, and some five weeks ago, Henry's wife died—all three were victims of typhoid fever, and each contracted it while caring for the other.

Henry Hunt was a man of fine sense, and more than ordinary energy. By dint of hard labor, rather than through advantageous circumstances, he acquired a good common school education, beginning his effort for it after he was grown. Two years ago, he secured a first-class certificate, when so many failed; he served two years as a justice of the peace and his service was very acceptable to his constituency.

He was a gentleman in every sense a Christian, pleasant affable and readily made friends. Had he lived he would have made his mark.

Mr. J. H. Yandell, a well known citizen, died at his home three miles west of town, Sunday Dec. 25, after a brief illness. Up to a few hours before his death, his illness was not considered dangerous, and he sat up and was cheerful and his friends anticipated his early recovery. At noon Sunday he grew suddenly worse, and at 7 o'clock passed away.

He was born in Hopkins county fifty-two years ago, and came to this county about the time he was grown. He married a Miss Armstrong and settled here, rearing a family.

He was an ardent Mason, and stood high in the fraternity.

He was a good citizen in every way, and many friends will cherish in their memory his name, and kindly face.

He was buried with Masonic honors at Chapel Hill cemetery.

ters, both ancient and modern, on the life and character of Caesar. These will enable the reader to acquire a view of Caesar as presented by persons most competent to form a correct judgement of his merits and achievements.

The artistic features of the story are in keeping with its literary excellence. In addition to reference maps, showing all the places mentioned, there are numerous illustrations of Roman and Gallic soldiers, Roman arms and armor, warships and siege engines, besides many full page pictures of historic scenes in the life of Caesar.

A Surprise Party.

MR. EDITOR:—Did you ever hear of the "ill wind, which don't blow nobody no good, no how." I have, verbatim. But I am not writing about that wind, but the one which struck the west end of Marion on the evening of the 24th, the parsonage in particular. Such a confused mass of people, sacks, baskets, etc., are not seen every day, at any home. The bright shining faces of these storm-tossed people would be a study for a painter; and the faces of the pastor and his family (the company of which are indeed a credit to the town) were equally bright, though they had to leave their home in a hurry, and had to leave their possessions to someone else, and who was rapidly going to the front in his profession. As a parson, he has few superiors and we might say few equals. He is a dear friend sent here to contribute the friend who years ago failed to send a large basket filled with nice things to the old parsonage. May Heaven's richest blessings reward one and all, from little Nannie up to the noblest one of the dear ones.

When You Have a Bab Cold

You want the best medicine that can be obtained, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

You want a remedy that will not only give quick relief but effect a permanent cure.

You want a remedy that will relieve the lungs and keep expectoration easy.

You want a remedy that will counteract any tendency toward pneumonia.

You want a remedy that is pleasant and safe to take.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only medicine in use that meets all of these requirements. This remedy is famous for its cures of bad colds throughout the United States and in many foreign countries. It has many rivals, but, for the speedy and permanent cure of bad colds, stands without a peer and its splendid qualities are everywhere admired and praised. For sale by J. H. Orme, Druggist.

GREENBACKS or Government Money.

At close of our Civil War in 1865, there appeared in the London Times the following:

"It is difficult as financial policy which had its origin in the North American Republic during the late Civil War in that country, should become indelible in a future, then that government will furnish its money without cost. It will have all the money that is necessary to carry on its trade and commerce. It will become prosperous beyond precedent in the history of civilized nations of the world. The brain and wealth of all countries will go to North America. THAT GOVERNMENT MUST BE DESTROYED OR IT WILL DESTROY EVERY MONARCHY ON THIS GLOBE."
